Dear Special Friend,

It's late at night & all is quiet. I wanted to write to you a personal letter, & as I sit at my desk, a thousand thoughts are flooding my mind. The year is almost over. Soon it will be Christmas when the church & the world remember the birth of Jesus. To many, He's just a man, but to us who believe, He is the Creator of the Universe come down to save His lost sons and daughters. What a wonder —
Our God became a man!

This tells me He must love us with an amazing love. It also tells me the Man hanging on the cross was the Almighty God. He went to that cross to redeem us, lost and condemned sinners. He came to save us & lift us up. So dear friend of mine, we are never alone, never forsaken, never cast off. Heaven is a reality, and right now He's preparing a home for us in glory. Let us allow Him to enfold us in His great arms of love.

I write to encourage you to keep on trusting & believing. The best is yet to be. Your best days are still to come. I have been preaching about our blessed Savior for 50 years, and I testify He gets sweeter as the days go by.

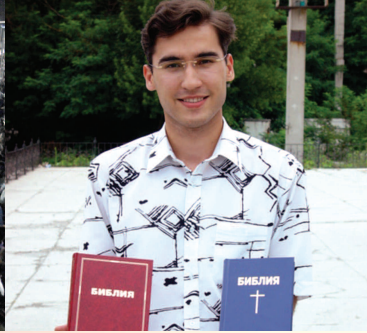

Thank you so very much for supporting the preaching of the Good News. You have helped to save many many souls! Please, before the old year dies, would you consider a special gift for Christ? I promise you it will be used 100% to bring Jesus to lost men & women. Please be my faith partner Forgive my Handwriting.

Please write soon, even today. Now, may God bless you and your dear ones in a wonderful way, at this holiday season. With much love,

John J. Carter

John Carter answers frequently asked questions.

QUESTIONER: You are past the age of retirement. Why do you keep on preaching and evangelizing?

JOHN CARTER: Because God called me to preach His Word and I don't read in the Bible anything about a minister retiring.

QUESTIONER: Why do you believe God has blessed you over and beyond?

JOHN CARTER: God has blessed me far more than I deserve. I have seen His Glory. I have experienced Pentecost. I have seen hundreds of thousands of souls come to Christ.

QUESTIONER: How much does the Church give you to save souls and baptize thousands?

JOHN CARTER: We receive no monies from the Church. God supplies what is needed to preach His Gospel. We love the Church and are content.

QUESTIONER: Where does the money come from to conduct these giant campaigns?

JOHN CARTER: From the gifts of God's faithful saints.

QUESTIONER: Does the Church benefit from The Carter Report?

JOHN CARTER: Thousands have joined the Church through The Carter Report.

QUESTIONER: Some say there is only one money pie and when people send you money, they are really stealing from the denominational pie.

JOHN CARTER: Critics need to have faith and open the fridge. There are many pies. God has a thousand ways and a thousand pies.

QUESTIONER: Are not independent ministries divisive?

JOHN CARTER: Some certainly are. Jesus tells us, "By their fruits you will know them."

QUESTIONER: Why do people support The Carter Report and other so-called independent ministries that are supporting the Church?

JOHN CARTER: Because they see the results and are tired of the status quo. It is certainly their God given right to use their money as the Spirit of God directs them. God is a big God and will finish His work in ways that may surprise some traditionalists. Remember the saying, "Let GO, and let GOD."
