

How Can Bad News be Good News?

USDOE

April 2012

Dear Faithful Partner,

For the true believer, the best is yet to be. What is more, the bad news always precedes the good news. When things in the world look bad, it's because God is preparing a mansion for His people in glory.

The news in the Middle East is bad. Iran may soon join the nuclear club (USA, Russia, Britain, France, Israel, China, North Korea, Pakistan, and India), and Israel with America's backing may soon strike to preempt the perceived threat. That's bad news for the world, but the bad news tells us that Jesus is coming. The blackest night always gives way to the most glorious dawn. Darkness is always followed by the light.

You and I are ambassadors of hope. We are not like the people featured on the National Geographic Channel who are preparing for Armageddon by stockpiling guns and canned food. We have a mission to share the good news of Christ with the nations. Our message is: Jesus is coming, the dawn is approaching, and whosoever will may come and be saved. We are not doomsayers. We proclaim, "good tidings of great joy." Please partner with us during these momentous times. Together we can make a difference.

What can I do to make a difference?

- Pray for the people who attend the meetings
- Pray for our safety
- Pray that the Word will be proclaimed in power
- Pray that the nets will be sufficient to hold the fish
- Pray that the money for the campaign will be raised

URGENTLY NEEDED $500,000.00
FOR UPCOMING CAMPAIGN

You may also determine to be a part of these great outreaches, if not by going, then by giving. Please consider that a gift at this time will help kindle the candle of hope. Please talk to the Lord about this matter that bears the weight of divine urgency, and prayerfully consider a gift for the salvation of souls and the preaching of the Gospel of hope.

I want to hear from you. Thank you in Christ's name for your partnership in the Good News.

Yours in the Blessed Hope,

John Carter
