A crowd of 42,000 heard Pastor John Carter with translator Pastor Cesar Cardenas proclaim God's Word with power at the National Stadium. More than 700 buses were hired by The Carter Report and transported thousands to the meetings. 200 pastors served as counselors while 750 Pathfinders helped as ushers. Another 1,000 of our church members greeted the visitors who had come from all over the nation.

SATURDAY NIGHT — 52,000 SOULS PACK THE STADIUM

The evening following the opening Friday meeting saw even greater crowds. Pastor Carter presented Christ as the Man who wrote His own life story before He was born. The story of a crucified, resurrected and returning Savior thrilled and moved the audience of 52,000 souls. Thousands responded during the altar call to accept Jesus as Lord and Savior.

NATIONAL LEADER SAYS, “THIS IS WHAT IS NEEDED!”

The former Vice President of El Salvador, Ana Vilma de Escobar, attended. Pastor and Mrs. Carter prayed with her and she remarked, “What you are doing here is just what the nation needs at this time. There is so much crime, and the Gospel is the only solution. Thank you for coming.” Ana is now running for a second term for the office of the Vice Presidency of El Salvador.
