

“Let not your heart
be troubled”

July 2016

Dear Friend,

When the world is too much, remember God loves you. When sorrow and pain are constant companions, remember they will pass. Jesus feels our anguish and assures us there is a better day coming. We cannot understand all the whys but we can trust a God who went to the cross for us.

I have just returned from Australia where I took the funeral of a very dear friend. Graeme was taken from his family and friends by skin cancer. His faith shone in the darkness of his suffering and he died trusting in His Savior, believing he would rise in glory. He knew in his brave heart that just as day follows night so life follows death. We said “good night,” not “good bye.”

We stand aghast as the suffering of so many. We are horrified by the barbarism of the terrorists, and heartbroken by the images of dead children. Surely on these occasions, the world is too much.

We hold on during these dark hours, knowing that the Sun of Righteousness will arise with healing in His wings. ...Continue on page 4

A LETTER THAT TOUCHED OUR HEARTS

“Hi Brother Carter, I know you have no idea who I am, but you may remember my family. When you lived in Texas, you had a prophecy meeting, and there you met my grandmother. Her name is Jo-Ann and soon she followed the truths she heard. My parents Barbara and Bob, my grandfather Bob, and the rest of my family soon followed. The reason I’m contacting you is to ask you to keep my grandfather Bob in your prayers. He was diagnosed with (treatable) heart problems today. Even though you may not remember my family, they remember you and watch your program regularly and talk about you as much as they watch you (even after more than 20 something years). I love watching the Carter Report, and honestly feel as though God is convicting me to reach out to you. Thank you.”
